

State Bureau of Vital Statistics, has confessed shooting of Alvin E. Zollinger, advertising solicitor. Zollinger may die.

Buda Pesth, Hungary.—Towns of Balvanijee, Caralja and Mortamee razed to ground by cyclone. Dozens killed.

We just published this item of news to show that Illinois, Kansas and Texas haven't got any monopoly on cyclones.

Des Moines, Ia.—"William J. Bryan is willing and anxious to accept the Democratic nomination if it be offered him in the proper way."—From Iowa Bryan league circular just sent out.

Now what do you think is the proper way for the Democrats to ask Mr. Bryan to accept a $75,000 a year job?

Madison, Wis.—Nicolo Quartuccio pleaded guilty to murder of Andrea Stasi May 1, after quarrel. 25 years.

Indianapolis.—Personal appeal by Congressman Victor Berger prevented Socialist national convention sending telegram to Taft and Gov. Johnson, of California, demanding protection for Industrial Workers of World in San Diego.

New Orleans.—Gap in levee at Hymelia widened to 500 feet today. Parishes of St. John, St. Charles, LaFourche, Assumption and Jefferson threatened. 60,000 persons preparing to flee. Crops valued at $12,000,000 will be destroyed.

Port Allen, La.—Panic stricken residents blew up tracks of Texas Pacific R. R. with dynamite where roadbed ran through gap in levee. Despite floods, railroad had refused to close gap. Prominent citizens to be arrested.

Springfield, Ill.—By vote of 28 to 12, senate today passed compromise Modern Woodmen of World bill.

— o —
It isn't what I WAS

It's what
I AM

Al J. Jennings.

How'd you like to have for prosecuting attorney a former bandit, outlaw, life term and leader of bad men? Supposing he said he had reformed, would you vote for him? Well, there are lots of people in Oklahoma County,